The Heart of the Law

- Honor God's Law: Matthew 5:17-18 (Guest Bible p. 683)

When we look closely, the Old Testament law reveals something we need to see: the _____ and _____ of God.

C_____ law: Animal sacrifices, cleansing rituals, dietary restrictions. This WAS abolished by Jesus.

O_____ law (Talmud): Commentary on the Old Testament law. This WAS abolished by Jesus.

M_____ law: Basic laws for daily living requiring civility, fairness, honesty, proper treatment of others. This WAS NOT abolished by Jesus.

The law leads us to the _____ for salvation, and then Jesus leads us back to the _____ to understand _____.

- First Clean the Inside: Matthew 23:1-7; 23-28 (p. 700)

External obedience allows a _____ to remain untouched.

The _____ presence of Christ (the Holy Spirit) allows the heart of God's laws to exist in the hearts and minds of his followers.

- Love God and Neighbor: Matt. 22:35-39 (p. 699); Matt. 5:43-48 (p. 684)

Our love is not Christ-like until it is extended to our _____.

Can we, as disciples of Jesus, be at the forefront of demonstrating Christ-like _____, gentleness and _____ to a hurting nation?
