

Living Hope Community Church

November 22, 2020 - Pastor Ron Ressler

Watch and Pray

Matthew 26:36-46 (Guest Bible p. 703)

We'll look at this familiar passage from the night that Jesus was arrested, asking two different questions:

Question 1: How are the differences between the body, soul and spirit seen in these verses?

BODY: v. 41 – “The body (flesh) is weak”

The body is where we experience _____ and _____.

SOUL: v. 38 – “My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow”

The soul is where we experience _____ and _____.

SPIRIT: v. 41 – “The spirit is willing”

The spirit is where we experience _____ and _____.

Question 2: What does it mean to watch and pray, specifically the watch part?

Watching means staying _____, being _____.

Watching works better as a _____.

In addition to seeing, watching includes _____.

Watching informs our _____, prayer informs our _____.

Watching and praying are activities of the _____, not the _____.

Living Hope Community Church

November 22, 2020 - Pastor Ron Ressler

Watch and Pray

Matthew 26:36-46 (Guest Bible p. 703)

We'll look at this familiar passage from the night that Jesus was arrested, asking two different questions:

Question 1: How are the differences between the body, soul and spirit seen in these verses?

BODY: v. 41 – “The body (flesh) is weak”

The body is where we experience _____ and _____.

SOUL: v. 38 – “My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow”

The soul is where we experience _____ and _____.

SPIRIT: v. 41 – “The spirit is willing”

The spirit is where we experience _____ and _____.

Question 2: What does it mean to watch and pray, specifically the watch part?

Watching means staying _____, being _____.

Watching works better as a _____.

In addition to seeing, watching includes _____.

Watching informs our _____, prayer informs our _____.

Watching and praying are activities of the _____, not the _____.