

1 Peter Series

Review: Imitating the Humility of Jesus

1 Peter 5:5b-6 (Guest Bible p. 859)

Additional reference: "Humility" by Andrew Murray

The enemy of humility: Isaiah 14:13-15; Genesis 3:1-5

- _____ is the root of all sin and is the _____ of humility.
- We are not humbled by _____ but by _____.

The teaching of Jesus: Matthew 5:3,5; 11:29; 18:3; 20:27-28; 23:11;
Luke 9:46; 14:1-11; 18:14; 22:26-27; John 13:14

- External example: Where to _____? (Luke 14:8-11)
- Internal example: How to _____? (Luke 18:10-14)

The example of Jesus: Philippians 2:5-11

- As humility matures, _____ to _____ is the resulting fruit.
- The greatest _____ ever was followed by the greatest _____ ever.

Conclusion: True humility is becoming _____ so God can become _____.

"Flee to Jesus and hide yourselves in Him, until you are clothed with His humility. That alone is holiness." (Andrew Murray)

1 Peter Series

Review: Imitating the Humility of Jesus

1 Peter 5:5b-6 (Guest Bible p. 859)

Additional reference: "Humility" by Andrew Murray

The enemy of humility: Isaiah 14:13-15; Genesis 3:1-5

- _____ is the root of all sin and is the _____ of humility.
- We are not humbled by _____ but by _____.

The teaching of Jesus: Matthew 5:3,5; 11:29; 18:3; 20:27-28; 23:11;
Luke 9:46; 14:1-11; 18:14; 22:26-27; John 13:14

- External example: Where to _____? (Luke 14:8-11)
- Internal example: How to _____? (Luke 18:10-14)

The example of Jesus: Philippians 2:5-11

- As humility matures, _____ to _____ is the resulting fruit.
- The greatest _____ ever was followed by the greatest _____ ever.

Conclusion: True humility is becoming _____ so God can become _____.

"Flee to Jesus and hide yourselves in Him, until you are clothed with His humility. That alone is holiness." (Andrew Murray)